Dear Mr. Keilholz:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to thank you for your letter of 25 February 1960 in which you request some information on CIA. I am enclosing herewith some unclassified data on the Agency and a reprint of an interview which Mr. Dulles gave to U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT. I am also enclosing a glossy print of Mr. Dulles, another of the Deputy Director, General Charles Pearre Cabell, and photographs of Mr. Robert Amory, Jr., the Deputy Director for Intelligence, and of Mr. Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, the Inspector General. You may also be interested in a photograph of the architect's model of our new building, which is now in process of construction, and some data regarding it.

Thank you for your interest.
